

THREE FEATHERS ESTATE & VINEYARD

In the heart of the Chehalem Mountains, at the Northern end of The Willamette Valley, Three Feathers high-elevation vineyards are part of Oregon's most recognized appellation of cool climate wines.

Our 155-acre Estate comprises rolling hills from 700 - 1000 ft in elevation which form a natural heat sink, sheltered from winds and capturing summer warmth in its own natural microclimate. Ancient marine soils and respectful farming practices result in rare wines that embody this distinctive region and each growing season.

At Three Feathers Estate & Vineyard, we produce handcrafted small-lot wines using only grapes grown on the Estate. Our passion for growing and commitment to authenticity contribute to our mission of creating the best Oregon wines that reflect our terroir.

THE VINTAGE

Our 2019 Pinot Noir is the third vintage featuring the single-clone (Dijon 667) Pinot Noir from Block One of Three Feathers Estate planted in 2014.

2019 season was characterized by cooler temperatures and a shorter growing season. The summer was dry and warm but the rains arrived early September. The style of our 2019 Pinot is in the French tradition with a lighter color and juicy acidity, making it long lasting in the bottle and well paired with both flesh and fowl.
